Lives Of Young Companions (Sahaba)

Lessons to Inspire the Hearts

Typically when we think of the prophet's ﷺ life and his companions, mature and elderly people always come to mind first. However, upon closer look at the first Muslims, we find most of them were young. Prophet ﷺ received a large part of his support from youth who compromised the social segment that was open to new things, idealist and energetic.

Prophet ﷺ gave distinct importance to the youth. His whole effort and goal were to form a youth that was believing, religious, virtuous and chaste. This course will delve into these details.

This is a youth class but it is beneficial and open to brothers and sisters of all ages. Rasulullah ﷺ said: "A person will be with whom he loves....". So do not miss this opportunity to rejuvenate your Imaan and increase your knowledge and love of Sahaba.
